Soluna Certification Training Course

learn the skills necessary to successfully treat patients with these remarkable remedies

Today's complex medical issues require sophisticated medicines capable of healing on all levels of the body. Few natural medicine systems have the necessary requirements to obtain complete health. But the Soluna spagyric remedies have proven over the past 90 years of clinical therapeutic experience their unrivaled potency as a healing system. The Soluna Certification Training Course empowers attendees with the tools and knowledge to treat many of the complex conditions that plague today's society. Whether the problem is acute, chronic, degenerative or psychosomatic - this training course outlines proper treatment protocols and the understanding on a holistic basis to effectively treat and prevent these conditions.

Accredited by the American College of Integrative Medicine & Dentistry (ACIMD)
